JETNET iQ Announces Educational Partnership with Vaughn College for 2022 JETNET iQ Global Business Aviation Summit

UTICA, NY - JETNET, the leading provider of corporate aviation information, has partnered with Vaughn College to provide students the opportunity to interact with, and learn from, industry leaders at the 2022 JETNET iQ Global Business Aviation Summit. New York City-based Vaughn College is a four-year private college offering programs in engineering, technology, management, and aviation. Three students have been selected to participate in the Summit, which will be held September 15-16, 2022, at the New York Marriott Marquis in Times Square.

“We are thrilled to partner with Vaughn College and have students take part in this year’s JETNET iQ Global Business Aviation Summit,” stated JETNET CEO, Greg Fell. He continued, “Students from Vaughn College represent tomorrow’s leadership within business aviation. We believe having them attend the event and hear from today’s leaders is essential for future industry success.”

The three students selected are Boyuan Chen, Rachel Chin, and Nusrat Khan. Chen is a graduate student studying Aviation Management and junior student Chin and senior Khan are both in Airport Management.

“Students like Boyuan, Rachel, and Nusrat will help pave the way for the next generation of business aviation leaders,” said Rolland Vincent, JETNET iQ Creator and Director. “We hope their experience at the Summit will inspire them, and us, to new opportunities and aspirations within our industry.”

JETNET’s dedication to leadership and diversity is present on their Summit’s agenda, including a key panel titled “Expanding the Talent Pool - Who Is Moving the Needle?” This panel includes Dr. Sharon DeVivo, President of Vaughn College and Chair of FAA’s Youth Access to American Jobs in Aviation Task Force (YIATF). Dr. DeVivo said, “Vaughn College serves an incredibly diverse population of students who become outstanding contributors to all facets of the aviation and aerospace industry.” She continued, “We are pleased to partner with JETNET iQ during their annual conference, and are so appreciative of the opportunity provided to students to attend, network, and add to their educational experience.”
